

P D C 4 U

Position: Full Time Software Developer
Company: Pay Data Center
Location: Ogden, Utah
Salary: Negotiable

Company Overview:

Pay Data Center is a forerunner in providing a total electronic payment solution, offering front-end and delivery for credit card and Automated Clearing House (ACH) transaction processing.

Description:

PDC4U is seeking a software developer / programmer to participate in the development of a state of the art payment solution system. This opportunity includes: requirements gathering, object oriented systems design, systems implementation and deployment, limited end user technical support, system defect identification and correction, software testing and test case development.

Requirements:

Ideal candidates possess capabilities in the following areas:

- Good written and verbal communication skills.
- Enjoys working with other people and is team / workgroup oriented.
- Understands object oriented design and development processes.
- Likes learning new technologies, development strategies and industry best practices and patterns.
- Web development technologies including: HTML, XHTML, PHP, CSS, JSP Pages, XML, Java Servlets, SOAP, client & server side programming including Java, PHP.
- Database capability including ability to design and properly normalize database structure. Capable of programmatically inserting, extracting, querying information from a database.
- Networking including a good understanding of TCP/IP group of protocols.
- Familiarity with Unix operating systems including FreeBSD, various Linux distributions. (FreeBSD is preferred but not necessary)
- Familiar with and knowledgeable about Microsoft Windows operating system.
- Knowledge of a wide variety of programming languages and associated concepts is a plus.

Consideration will be given to individuals who may not currently have the entire above skill set but are passionate to learn.

Benefits:

- Employer matched 401-k
- Health & Dental Insurance